

Supervisors' Minute Book, No. 7, Shelby County, Iowa.

Session, 191

Harlan, Iowa, July 29, 1918

The Board of Supervisors met today in special session with members N. H. Johnson and Hans Brodersen and County Auditor Glen P. Howard present.

A petition having been filed with the County Auditor by two hundred resident freeholders asking that an annual tax be levied for the establishment of and maintenance of a public hospital at Harlan, Iowa, Supervisors Johnson and Brodersen filed a written request with the Auditor asking that a special meeting of the Board be called for the purpose of considering the above mentioned petition. The County Auditor fixed July 29, 1918, as the date for the special meeting and notice of same was published in the Shelby County Republican on July 25, 1918, and personal service of notice of special meeting was had on N. H. Johnson and Hans Brodersen, who represent a majority of the Board of Supervisors.

The petition was presented to the Board and after careful examination they found that the petition was signed by over one hundred fifty resident freeholders of the county who reside outside of the limits of the City of Harlan and was also signed by more than fifty resident freeholders who reside in the City of Harlan.

On motion the Board ordered that the question as petitioned for be submitted to the voters of Shelby County, Iowa, at the November election, 1918, and the County Auditor was ordered to prepare special ballots for this purpose to be voted upon at the November, 1918, election.

There being no further business at this time the Board on motion adjourned.
